REGULATION XII OF 1935.

(Received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the 30th day of December 1935.)

Regulation further to amend the Mysore Prevention of Adulteration Regulation, IX of 1921.

Preamble.

Whereas it is expedient to further amend the Mysore Prevention of Adulteration Regulation, 1921; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Addition of a new Section 5-A.

After Section 5 of the Regulation, the following new section shall be added as 5-A:

Prohibition of mixing of food with injurious ingredients or selling the same.

"5-A. Any person who mixes, colours, stains or powders or orders or permits any other person to mix, colour, stain or powder any article of food with any matter or ingredient so as to render the article injurious to health with intent that the same may be sold in that state or sells or offers or exposes for sale any such article so mixed, coloured, stained or powdered shall be punished for the first offence with a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and for every subsequent offence with a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Exemption in case of proof of absence of knowledge.

Provided that no person shall be liable to be convicted in respect of the sale of any article of food if he proves, to the satisfaction of the court before whom he is charged, that he did not know of the article of food being so mixed, coloured, stained or powdered as aforesaid and that he could not, with reasonable diligence, have obtained such knowledge."
